Live wonderful adventures exploring Mt. Etna

Etna Mareneve Escursioni was born from the enormous passion we have for our land, and from our long-standing experience thanks to many years of collaboration with other businesses in the tourism sector. "It provides evocative moments in the earth of nature and renders this moment unforgettable"; This is our mission. We offer professionalism and experience to those looking to explore nature with the highest respect, in a vision of eco-tourism; responsible and sustainable. A source of much pride and important legacy for us Sicilians. Etna, "Mongibello" or "A Muntagna" is actually the highest (3.350 m above sea level), widest (1'600 km) and most active Volcano in Europe and in the Mediterranean. Even today it is the most active volcano in the world and this is proved by the frequent eruptions We witness regularly, which have created many other small craters and lava flows, incessantly changing the landscape over the course of time.

With our off-road vehicles, we offer you the chance to:

- Travel across a vast and extremely diverse territory, visiting various small villages sitting at the foot of the mountain
- Pass through quarries where the extraction of lava rock takes place
- Admire the striking panormaic view of the "valle del bove"
- Go trekking across inactive volcanic cones (Mount Sartorius, 1.800m above sea level)
- Visit Piano Provenzana to see the most recent significant lava flow of 2002 close-up
- Enter caves created by lava flow.

Have lunch or tasting local wines and unique Sicilian products is also planned for those who would like to have some regional delights during their day. All cars are equipped with forward-facing seats.

Etna Off-road Half Day and Full Day

Your experience will begin straight away going through ancient villages rich in history and traditions on the slopes of the volcano and along paths through the woods inside the Etna Park. During your Journey through the secrets of our land you will walk on the brink of inactive craters, to understand the structure of the volcano and its eruptions, we will discover a lava tunnel and will climb with 4WD Vehicles to reach the wonderful views of the Bove Valley and enjoy a breathtaking view.

During our ascent we will notice how the vegetation changes constantly according to the altitude. We will cross Lava deserts alternating with flora rich in different species: apple trees, cherries, vineyards, hazelnuts, chestnut trees, oak trees, junipers, pines, birch trees, beech trees. We will discover hidden corners and unique views like those of a Dagala (an island of earth and vegetation surrounded and miraculously spared by lava) and Piano Provenzana with its views of the Ionian Sea and the lava flow of 2002.

For those who decide to take the full day with us we will continue our experience tasting the typical Sicilian cuisine; lunch includes the use of exclusively seasonal products from the Etna territory, lunch includes the excellent Etna Doc wine and upon request lunch will be revisited for our vegetarian guests.

Etna Craters 3.000m

Our experience will begin right away going through ancient villages rich in history and traditions on the slopes of the volcano and along paths through the woods inside the Etna Park.

During our ascent we will notice how the vegetation changes constantly according to the altitude. We will cross Lava deserts alternating with flora rich in different species: apple trees, cherries, vineyards, hazelnuts, chestnut trees, oak trees, junipers, pines, birch trees, beech trees.

Starting from Rifugio Sapienza or Piano Provenzana (according to craters activity conditions), at an altitude of approximately 1.900m. we will leave the beaten path, and from then on the landscape will change drastically, vegetation will give way to Lunar landscapes, that are very impressive.

We will reach an altitude of 2500m we will continue on foot from there, walking along low-activity craters, leaving everything behind, we will be overwhelmed by the feeling of being in a unique place, enjoying a magnificent panoramic view of Sicily, we will therefore start our descent down to 1.900m. Our experience will continue with the visit of a lava cave with ropes, helmets and flashlights, discovering how the lava, flowing underground, can create beautiful round tunnels.

The Full Day will continue enjoying the typical Sicilian cuisine; lunch includes exclusively the use of seasonal products from the Etna territory, including excellent Etna Doc wine and, upon request, it will be revisited for our vegetarian guests.

After lunch, we will continue to discover this magical place along on off-road paths that will take us to the Bove Valley, a wonderful place where everything began...

THE MAKING OF GRANITA

An excursion for those who love nature and granita accompanied by the traditional "brioche col tuppo". We will take you around by jeep to visit the most beautiful places of Mount Etna, passing by lava flows, craters and "snow" caves, where snow was kept in the summer to make the famous "Sicilian Granita." During the tour we will attend the exhibition of a master ice-cream maker; we will make hand-made granita, as they used to do in ancient times when they didn't have refrigerators! After the preparation you can taste the real Sicilian Granita.

VOLCANIC CAVE EXPLORATION

Etna is extremely rich with lava extinguished caves, generated over various eruptions. You will admire lava flows from different ages, a cave from which they extract lava stones on the slopes of Etna and main sights like Pietra Cannone, Monte Fontana, Valle del Bove, Grotta Neviera, Monti Sartorius. We will let you experience the thrill of going down into the volcano underworld discovering the ancient craft of "nevaroli". Snow was stored in the caves up until summer, when it was used to prepare delicious granitas!

Siracusa and Noto Full Day

Our Experience will begin with a visit to Siracusa, a fascinating and evocative place that Cicero defined "the most beautiful city of Magna Grecia", a cultural capital from the Greek age to the Renaissance and Baroque period.

Unesco heritage, the city rises in the setting of an impressive natural harbor, enclosed on one side by the island of Ortigia, founded in 734 BC by the Corinthian settlers who enjoyed a period of great political and cultural growth like Athens and Alexandria. One of the most important cities in eastern Sicily.

Surrounded by centuries of history, we will visit the Neapolis park, the historic center of Ortigia with the Temple of Minerva and the Fonte Aretusa, at the end of this wonderful journey through history we will indulge with a refreshing lunch based on local products.

After lunch our day will proceed with a visit to Noto, where we will enjoy a pleasant stroll along its streets ranging from squares and stairs and decorated by bright honey-colored architectures. Formerly called Neas by the Sicilians, Neaton by the Greeks and Netum by the Romans, the capital of Sicilian Baroque, Noto was rebuilt for the last time in 1702 using three different styles of Baroque, perched on a plateau dominating the Asinaro valley.

The important Sicilian, Roman, Byzantine and then Arabian city was destroyed in its full splendor by the earthquake of 1693, but thanks to the wise reconstruction, Noto has become a magnificent city of art, Unesco heritage, a real gem, truly unforgettable!

Modica and Ragusa Full Day

Our Experience will start with a visit to the "Sweet" town of Modica, rebuilt in Sicilian Baroque style, after the earthquake of 1693, one of the most picturesque towns in the province of Ragusa and to tell the truth about Sicily in general, some years UNESCO included Modica in the list of locations protected as a World Heritage Site.

The city is divided into two parts, "upper" Modica and "lower", Modica connected by numerous stairs. The oldest nucleus of Modica revolves around the ruins of the ancient castle, where a tangle of small roads leads to the highest point of the city.

By getting closer to the oldest part of the city, you can notice the houses that are attached to each other and often come up partly by exploiting the natural cavities of the rock. These caves were inhabited since prehistoric times, and today many have been literally embedded in the latest buildings.

We will complete our visit to the city with the tasting of the different varieties of chocolate produced following the ancient Azteca recipe.

We will continue our experience with the visit of the city of Ragusa, capital of the province, crossed by the Irmio River. The city is divided between the new and the old part, called Ibla, built on the ruins of ancient cities and also rebuilt, like Modica, after the earthquake of 1693. Ragusa and Ibla offer a beautiful historical center with a wonderful panoramic view.

Walking along the narrow streets we will discover the Piazza del Duomo or the St. George's portal next to the beautiful Iblei gardens. we will continue exploring Ragusa up to Ibla, the oldest and most fascinating part, thanks to the many palaces and churches rich in baroque architecture

Every corner of this small historic village gives us a surprise, a walk along these places is really a unique experience.

Program

- Pick-Up at Accommodation
- Visiting Modica
- Tasting of typical products
- Lunch
- Visit of Ragusa and Ibla
